Benjamin is an Articling Student at BLG Beyond for the 2024-2025 term. He is focusing on corporate law and compliance.

Prior to joining BLG, he was a legal executive in a mid-size law firm where he led the expansion of the foreign national legal department.

He also co-founded various startups in the medical, retail and food tech industries and guided companies through various stages of growth, expansion, and optimization.

Benjamin has been with BLG for 5 years and has held multiple in-house roles giving him valuable insights in both the practice of law and business operations.

In his spare time, Benjamin enjoys spending time outdoors with his family, trying new foods and travelling to Korea and Japan.
