Savy is an articling student in BLG's Calgary office.

Savy previously clerked at the Court of King's Bench in Calgary. Savy was inspired to join BLG for the opportunity to learn from experts in a diverse array of practice areas. Savy's primary area of interest is health and tort law.

Prior to joining BLG, Savy worked as a Registered Nurse primarily in public health and homecare. As a law student, Savy volunteered for Student Legal Services and got involved with University of Alberta Law's hockey and rugby teams.

In her spare time, Savy enjoys following Formula 1, playing sports with friends, and reading.

Education

- BN, University of Calgary, 2020
