Kelechi is a summer student at BLG's Toronto office for the 2023 summer term. She is focusing on business law.

Prior to joining BLG, Kelechi worked as an economic recovery analyst for the Government of Newfoundland and Labrador. She also held positions as a trade supervision intern with RBC Capital Markets and an equity analyst for Memorial University's student-managed investment fund.

As a law student, Kelechi serves as a president for an on-campus Christian fellowship, a member of the Black Law Student Association UNB chapter, and a competitor at the Bowman Tax Moot.

Kelechi chose to work at BLG after hearing representatives from the firm speak at a Black Law Student Association firm hop. After meeting BLG's fantastic team and learning about the student program, it was clear that BLG would offer the right environment for a valuable student experience.

Kelechi enjoys video editing, painting, and solving puzzles in her spare time.
