Pavan is a paralegal in the Commercial Real Estate group of our Vancouver office. She assists lawyers and clients with a wide range of real estate transactional matters, including residential and commercial disposals and acquisitions, land development and commercial lending. Her work is focused on comprehensive due diligence research and analysis, conducting and analyzing registered Land Title Office charges, preparation and electronic registration of Land Title Office documents, and drafting preliminary and final reports.

Pavan has experience liaising with real estate agents, insurance agents, bankers, developers, surveyors, engineers and municipal and provincial authorities. Her scope of knowledge includes the forms and procedures of the BC Land Title & Survey Authority.
