Jovik is articling at our Montréal office, in our Disputes program. He joined in the summer of 2022.

Prior to joining BLG, Jovik worked as an intern in a law firm specialized in workers' compensation, which allowed him to acquire legal research and drafting skills. He also worked as a legal assistant in a regional law firm where he supported associates and partners in their administrative tasks.

During his studies, Jovik was appointed president of the Student section of the Canadian Bar Association – Québec division, where he coordinated a team of 15 provincial representatives and served on its national committee. Simultaneously, Jovik was elected president of UQAM Law Students Association. During his mandate, he conducted a reform of the Association's statutes and set the highest amount of partnerships raised in a year.
