Caitlin's practice focuses on charities and not-for-profits.

Caitlin is passionate about providing practical and tailored legal advice to clients on corporate and commercial matters. More specifically, Caitlin assists with corporate governance, regulatory compliance, restructuring, incorporation, charitable registration, and gift planning.

Caitlin has experience assisting a wide variety of organizations, which include, among others, organizations created for the purposes of advancing education, health, equality, religion and relieving poverty.

Prior to joining BLG, Caitlin practiced at a large national law firm and specialized in tax and corporate matters for not-for-profit organizations and charities.
