Howard is a summer student at BLG's Toronto office for the 2023 summer term, focusing on disputes.

As a law student, Howard volunteered at the Adult ID Clinic with Pro Bono Students Canada, served as a member of the Social Committee, volunteered as a moot judge, and supports other students as a mentor through the Peer Mentorship Program.

Howard chose to work at BLG after speaking with students and lawyers of the firm and learning about their rewarding experiences. Overwhelmed by the collegial, supportive and fun environment, it became clear that BLG's unparalleled culture makes it an ideal firm to learn and grow as a legal professional.

Howard grew up in Hong Kong and is fluent in Cantonese. In Howard's spare time, you can find him supporting the Toronto Raptors, playing badminton, watching car reviews, exploring Costco, and finding cafes in Toronto that serve great coffee.

Education

- JD, University of Windsor, 2024 (expected)
- BA (Hons), University of Toronto, 2018
