Marin maintains a general commercial litigation practice with a focus on construction litigation and arbitration. He acts on behalf of owners, contractors and subcontractors in construction and engineering disputes.

Marin also specializes in advising national and international military, cybersecurity, and technology contractors navigating Canada's naval and aviation procurement and defence landscapes.

He acts as counsel to international aerospace and naval corporations seeking to enter Canadian aerospace and defence sectors. He has experience with civil aviation regulations, government relations, and trade and export control issues.

Marin has appeared before all levels of court in Alberta, including the Federal Court of Canada, the Tax Court of Canada and various arbitral and administrative tribunals.

Prior to law school, Marin was a member of the Canadian Armed Forces.
