Jeff is recognized as one of the leading lawyers in Canada for construction law by the foremost legal rankings publications.

He acts on behalf of owners, contractors, subcontractors, lenders and sureties in disputes arising from large-scale construction and engineering projects in the infrastructure, industrial and commercial sectors.

Jeff has extensive experience before the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta and the Alberta Court of Appeal. He has also appeared before the superior courts of Saskatchewan and Manitoba, the Federal Court of Canada and the Supreme Court of Canada.

Jeff acts extensively as counsel in both domestic and international arbitrations, and has served as both an arbitrator and a mediator.

Jeff provides legal services through a Law Corporation.

Experience

- Counsel in a multi-party arbitration, acting for a Construction Manager in a dispute arising out of the construction of a large hospital project in northern Alberta, with claims and cross-claims involving the public owner and a number of subcontractors.

- Counsel in an arbitration, acting for a contractor engaged in the design and delivery of a highly complex signalling infrastructure for a railway project in Ontario, in a dispute with a consortium partner arising out of a disagreement over scope of work and contractual performance.
- Counsel in an arbitration involving two joint ventures engaged in disputes arising out of the design and construction of a major ring road project in southern Alberta.
- Counsel in an arbitration, for an international engineering firm defending a $125 million claim arising out of the design of a series of pumping stations on a large international oil pipeline. The arbitration was commenced as an ICC arbitration, but was converted to ad hoc rules by agreement between the parties.
- Counsel in an arbitration, for an owner of a $1 billion sour gas processing plant in northern Canada claiming damages against two contractors and a fabricator. This arbitration was commenced under UNCITRAL rules, and is a multi-party proceeding.
- Counsel in an arbitration, for a general contractor involved in disputes with the owner and with a number of subcontractors arising out of the construction of an international airport in a major city in Canada.
- Counsel in an arbitration, for a design build contractor, arising out of the design and construction of a highway infrastructure project in southern Manitoba.
- Counsel in an arbitration, for an EPC contractor involved in a dispute with the owner and operator of a carbon capture facility.
- Graham Building Services v. Saskatoon (City) (2018), SKQB336; successfully sought leave to appeal from an arbitration award.
- Whissell Contracting Ltd. v. Calgary (City) et al. (2017), ABQB 644; successfully acted for a general contractor in resisting an application for summary judgment by a subcontractor.
- JTI v. Alberta (2016), ABCA 28 (Alta. CA); successfully set aside an adverse interpretation of the Tobacco Tax Act of Alberta.
