Will is an articling student at BLG's Toronto office with a focus on disputes.

At the University of Toronto, Will was an executive in the Environmental Law Club and volunteer in the Peer Mentorship Program. He worked as a research assistant for professor emeritus Martin Friedland, contributing to a series of articles on Canadian legal history. Passionate about oral advocacy, Will was the Champion and Top Oralist of the 2022 Frank W. Callaghan Memorial Moot, as well as a lead organizer of the 2023 competition.

Before law school, Will worked in commercial construction management as a site supervisor performing commercial and industrial renovations throughout the GTA.

Will chose BLG for its varied practice areas, collaborative culture, and excellent mentorship.

Outside of the law, Will enjoys running, pub trivia, and attempting to eat the regional sandwich and pizza of every major North American region.
