Lex advises charities and not-for-profits on a wide range of issues including corporate governance, agreements and transactions, charitable registrations, and incorporations.

Lex has been a driving force on BLG's work on the implementation of documentation needed under the ONCA. She knows the Act intimately and has been working with various Ontario corporations on the nuances they require with respect to certain provisions of the Act.

She has been involved in numerous charitable registrations and Canada Revenue Agency audits of registered charities.

Prior to joining BLG, Lex practiced with a boutique firm specializing in tax and corporate matters for charities and not-for-profits.
