Abby is a law student at our Montréal office. She joined in the summer of 2022.

Prior to joining BLG, Abby worked as an intern for the claims department of an insurance brokerage company, developing her leadership and teamwork capabilities. Abby was also a volunteer at a family, tax, and immigration legal clinic, allowing her to acquire skills in legal research and drafting.

In addition, Abby has been involved in various community projects. She is an active member of an association that helps recruit students for CEGEP, particularly with a passion for law. Abby is also the external affairs executive for a non-profit organization, which sends medical equipment and fosters employment opportunities in a Honduran village.
