While Émile supports professionals from all groups, he focuses primarily on commercial litigation, tort liability and insurance law.

He also has some experience with youth law, having shadowed judge Lyne Morin of the Court of Québec during his bachelor's degree.

Prior to joining BLG, Émile had already completed two co-op internships with a Montréal-based boutique litigation firm and a Sherbrooke multinational.

Émile was vice-president of the Université de Sherbrooke association (Association générale étudiante de droit de l'Université de Sherbrooke) in 2022-2023.

Education
