Bailey is a summer student at the Toronto office for the 2020 summer term. She is focusing on business law.

Prior to joining BLG, Bailey worked as a research assistant at Western Law in health law and policy, focusing on COVID-19 policies in Ontario. At Western, Bailey also acts as President of the Western Intellectual Property Association and Incoming Co-Chair of the Western Health Law Association, participates in peer mentorship initiatives, and volunteered with Community Legal Services as a caseworker.

Bailey chose BLG because she is excited to learn about a wide range of practice areas from highly skilled lawyers. She was also drawn to BLG because of how welcoming and friendly the people are.

In her spare time, Bailey enjoys going to the movies, spending time with her family and friends, and going to football and baseball games.

Education

- H BSc., University of Toronto, 2019
- JD Candidate, Western University, 2022
