Anne is a lawyer, trademark agent and chair of BLG's Vancouver Trademark group. She specializes in advising clients with strategies on brand protection and management. Anne's clients range from large multinational corporations to individually-owned businesses. She is skilled at providing targeted strategic advice based on specific needs.

Anne guides clients in securing trademark protection in Canada and worldwide, and provides management and enforcement advice to national and worldwide trademark portfolios.

Her practice also includes:

- contentious matters with the enforcement of her client's rights through opposition and cancellation proceedings
- issuing demand letters and negotiating settlement agreements

Anne is fluent in Cantonese and conversant in Mandarin.

She has more than 20 years experience exclusively in intellectual property, since articling with a Vancouver-area intellectual property boutique firm.
