Jonah Kahansky is an Articing Student at BLG's Toronto office.

During law school, Jonah worked on the development of Canada's Carbon Pricing Program at Environment and Climate Change Canada. He also led a research project on environmental and sustainability reporting in Canada's alpine ski industry during his Masters in Sustainability Management at the University of Toronto.

Jonah chose to work at BLG because of its collaborative, tight-knit, and supportive environment.

Outside of work, Jonah enjoys running, attending concerts, and teaching yoga.
