Daphne maintains a broad disputes practice, with a focus on commercial litigation, healthcare disputes and tax law. She advises and represents a wide variety of clients, ranging from large public corporations, small businesses, banks, hospitals and individual taxpayers. She has experience working on complex trial and appellate matters and she is passionate about finding effective legal solutions for her clients.

Daphne has appeared before the Ontario Superior Court of Justice.

Prior to joining BLG, Daphne worked at the House of Commons in Parliamentary Committees, where she got to witness the legislative process firsthand and gained valuable knowledge about Canada's legislative process.

Daphne summered and articulated at BLG before returning as an associate. She completed her law school education in French and is pleased to offer services in French.
