Alexie assists lawyers from different practice groups and has a particular interest in the Labour and Employment practice area. She performs tasks such as:

- Conducting legal research
- Shadowing lawyers in judicial and administrative courts and arbitrations
- Drafting research memorandums and legal articles
- Preparing presentations and conferences

Alexie discovered a strong interest for labour and employment law during her Bachelor's degree in Industrial Relations and her internship in human resources.

In Law School, Alexie acted as Vice-President, Events, of the Labour Law Committee.

In addition to her professional and extracurricular commitments, Alexie devotes herself passionately to the practice of various sports. She notably completed her National Oceanic Rescuer in Costa Rica and taught competitive alpine skiing, swimming, lifeguarding and group fitness alongside her studies.
