As a Summer Law Student, Brianne is assisting lawyers on a wide variety of tasks within our Business and Disputes groups.

Prior to law school, Brianne received her Bachelor in Secondary Education from the University of Alberta. With this, she enjoyed substitute teaching periodically after completing her education practicums. Currently, Brianne is a second-year JD student at the University of Saskatchewan. During her previous summer, she provided legal research services to Professor Dwight Newman.

In choosing BLG, Brianne was attracted by the opportunities for growth and ability to assist clients in innovative ways. Collegiality and teamwork were also appealing aspects of BLG.

Back home on her family's farm, Brianne loves riding horses and playing her fiddle. Further, she enjoys quiet evenings with a good book or exploring new hiking trails.
