Harrison is a trusted management advisor and advocate in both unionized and non-unionized workplaces. He advises clients on a variety of issues, including:

- Legislative and regulatory compliance;
- Wrongful dismissal and human rights litigation;
- Labour disputes;
- Employee privacy; and
- Workplace health and safety.

Harrison is also a skilled investigator with experience conducting and advising on complex, multi-party investigations concerning issues of harassment, discrimination and other breaches of corporate policy.

Prior to joining BLG, Harrison practiced at a highly regarded boutique employment and workplace investigations firm in Toronto.
