John Wood PLC completes US$110 million sale of its North American T&D business to Qualus LLC

On October 31, 2025, John Wood PLC ("Wood"), a global leader in consulting and engineering, completed the sale of its North American Transmission and Distribution engineering business to Qualus LLC for an enterprise value of US$110 million and cash proceeds of approximately US$105 million net of transaction costs.

This transaction supports Wood's strategy to reduce debt and streamline operations, while enabling Qualus to expand its expertise and footprint across North America.

BLG represented Wood on the Canadian aspects with a team led by Miles Pittman that included Arba Radaj (M&A); and Jennifer Hanna (Tax).
