Aaron is a 2026 articling student at BLG's Vancouver office.

Aaron obtained his Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance from Simon Fraser University, during which he completed a co-op term as a Financial Planning and Analysis Intern at a publicly listed company in Vancouver. He later pursued a Master's degree in Public Policy, focusing on income security, taxation, and fiscal policy research.

At law school, Aaron volunteered as a researcher with the Future of Law Lab, where he conducted comparative research on AI regulation. He also served as an executive member of the Tax Law Society and received the Edward J. Kowal '65 Prize for achieving the highest standing in commercial law subjects, as well as a tax law prize for earning one of the highest standings in Taxation.

Aaron chose to work at BLG for its strong and diverse practices, its reputation for excellence, and the opportunity to learn from and contribute to a team of dedicated professionals.

Aaron enjoys road trips and is also a ramen and sushi enthusiast, always looking for hidden culinary gems along the way.
