Moira maintains a broad disputes practice, with experience across a variety of litigation matters. Her work has focused largely on the labour and employment space, including contract disputes, human rights issues, and workplace harassment claims.

Moira completed her articles and summer student placement with BLG. Before beginning her legal career, Moira spent nearly a decade in human resources, including a number of years as an HR manager in the construction industry. She brings extensive experience in people management, employee and labour relations, and strategy development to her legal practice.
