Anne is an articling student in BLG's Ottawa office.

Anne graduated from the Programme de common law en français at the University of Ottawa. During law school, Anne took on many leadership roles, such as the Vice President of Equity of the Common Law Student Association and Vice President of Communications of the Regroupement étudiant de common law en français. She has also been involved with the Ottawa Law Review as the French Submissions Manager during her 3rd year.

She was a legal intern at the Senate of Canada and also worked as a legal intern at the Ontario Court of Justice.

In her spare time, Anne loves to go camping in her vintage camper trailer and discover new hiking trails. She also likes to stay active by practicing Taekwondo.
