Consulting

In today’s hyper-competitive environment, organizations aim to work smarter, faster and use technology to improve the bottom line. In-house legal departments are not exempt from these demands and can struggle to keep up with competitors.

BLG Consulting helps corporate clients with a range of challenges by reviewing their current legal operations, and collaborating with them to find solutions that match their culture and priorities.

When our team works with your business, you benefit because we already know how lawyers work and think. We focus on delivering lasting improvements, while taking into account the challenges that come with technology and process innovations.

Our team has the experience to help your legal department with:

- Legal operations transformation: as Canada’s largest law firm, we understand efficiency in legal operations. We are always improving how we do things to ensure service quality and cost management, and can do the same for you.
- Knowledge management: with our cutting-edge knowledge and innovation technologies, we can help your team save money and improve service delivery.
- Risk management: we help clients prepare for the worst, before it happens. Our team does a health check of current operational risks and regulatory compliance, and provides a roadmap to remediation.
- Legal and Business Process Outsourcing: Whether you are setting up a virtual office in Canada or taking business-as-usual tasks off your team’s hands, we can help.

We help our clients identify, implement and sustain performance improvements through:

- Performance Assessment: BLG Consulting's unique methodology helps clients identify significant productivity improvements in their legal departments.
- Problem-solving studies: We also do market research and provide advice on a variety of business matters.
- Solution Design: Using techniques such as design thinking, we help clients drive innovation in their organizations.
- Implementation Services Our project and change management expertise and resources can help implement your projects and programs.
- Managed Services: We identify, plan and manage the transition of business-as-usual tasks from a client’s organization into production within BLG.

We provide both legal and non-legal managed services, including:
• outsourcing of business-as-usual legal work, with guaranteed cost savings
• commercial lease management, services for your office, retail and industrial property needs
• virtual general counsel (GC) solutions, giving unlimited access to specialized GC that matches your business needs
