Robert is a summer student at BLG's Toronto office for the 2023 summer term.

As a law student at Osgoode Hall Law School, Robert is heavily involved with student government as a Representative on Osgoode's Student Caucus. He also represented Osgoode at the Canadian National Negotiation Competition and volunteered as a Residence Fellow and upper year mentor. Prior to law school, Robert worked as a research assistant in a COVID-19 lab.

Robert was drawn to BLG after learning of the firm's commitment to student development, training, and inclusion as well as the opportunity to explore many interesting practice areas. The students and lawyers he met throughout the recruitment process solidified BLG as the place for him.

Robert spends his spare time rock climbing, reading, and raising his cat, George Michael.
