Forestry

Whether you’re with a private or public forestry company or the provincial or federal government, it’s key to have a skilled legal team who can provide trusted advice and representation on all forestry law issues.

Our multidisciplinary team has a comprehensive grasp of past and present provincial forestry practice and legislation. We have significant experience in:

- forestry projects
- corporate/commercial issues
- regulatory issues
- environmental matters
- Indigenous matters
- provincial regulation governing forestry activities
- regulatory compliance advice
- mergers, acquisitions and corporate reorganizations

We have almost 20 years of experience with the softwood lumber dispute in various capacities and have acted in a number of roles for industry organizations. We provide substantive advice to government organizations on international legal obligations to proposed forest policy changes.
