Alma-Mazarine joined our Montréal office as a law student in the summer of 2022. She has a particular interest in labour and employment law, medical liability, and litigation.

During her law degree, she was involved in mentoring and tutoring law students at the University of Montreal. She was additionally a member of the organizing committee for the Colloque de la Fédération des étudiants en droit du Québec.

Prior to law school, Alma-Mazarine worked in the field of communications, marketing and customer service. This experience allowed her to develop the skills necessary to collaborate effectively with her colleagues and in the interest of her clients.
