Trevor has a broad civil litigation practice that includes motor vehicle claims, occupier's liability, property loss disputes and subrogation. He has cultivated a client centred approach to his practice, focused on meeting every client's needs and exceeding their expectations. His common sense style and relationship building help him achieve the best results.

Trevor has enjoyed success at various levels of court in advocating for best interests of his clients. He is often able to achieve practical resolution of matters outside of the courtroom as well.
